Albert C. Burrage Gold Cup for outstanding exhibit

Recent Awards from the Massachusetts Horticultural Society
at the Spring Flower Shows

This year marks the 40th Anniversary of the Weston Nurseries. Forty years of study and experience in the selecting and raising of the best plants for this area is a part of the background of every plant we sell.

Our many years of experience is also reflected in the recent successes at the Spring Flower Shows where our exhibits have won the President's Cup for the last three years in a row, and the Albert C. Burrage Gold Cup for the most outstanding exhibit in 1960 and again in 1961.

We are closed to business on all National Holidays. The nursery is closed Saturday afternoons during July, August, January and February, and all Sundays. The Garden Center schedule is the same as above except that it will remain open all day Saturday during July and August.

The Nursery is closed daily 12 to 12:45 p.m.

EVERGREENS

The interest, strength and permanence of any planting relies upon the effective use of evergreens. Together with architectural and natural features, they are the framework and refinement of a beautiful picture. Our gardens surrounding the Garden Center are a living example of the value of evergreens, showing their diversity of purpose.

Evergreens will not grow in land that is poorly drained, even though such areas are dry during the summer months. Plants that cannot be easily kept weed-free and cultivated should be mulched heavily with a coarse material such as hay or wood chips.

It is generally not advisable to fertilize evergreens when planting. After they are established for about a year, any recommended fertilizer used sparingly is advisable.

When evergreens are used in a restricted area, such as in foundation plantings, they normally require an annual pruning to prevent overgrowth and to give character to the planting. This pruning is best done during spring or early in the summer to allow time for additional growth to cover any possible unsightliness of the cuts. Hedge shears usually create a formal effect while hand shears or a knife are used if one wishes to prune for a more natural effect.

BROAD-LEAVED EVERGREEN SHRUBS

The successful raising of Broad-Leaved Evergreens is perhaps the greatest challenge to the nurseryman. Our years of experience in growing and our efforts in selecting hardy strains have made it possible to offer a complete selection of plants that will thrive in our climate.

Broad-Leaved Evergreens thrive in soils rich in organic matter. They need soils that are acid and the liberal use of Grobark, peat or peat moss is advisable. Being surface-rooted, this group of plants particularly enjoys either a mulch or a ground cover such as Pachysandra or Vinca to keep the soil cool and moist.

Rhododendron

This is perhaps the most exciting group of plants for our gardens. We take great pride in growing the large variety listed below. Many years of trial, hybridizing and selection have gone into this list.

The new Rhododendron carolinianum hybrids are noteworthy additions in that they can be used in smaller areas such as foundation plantings and rockeries. Rhododendron carolinianum PJM hybrids are a new, extraordinary variety that is getting national recognition for its exceptional qualities. These hybrids were originated by us in 1943, and one of the parent plants is an unnamed species sent to us by missionaries from China.

DECIDUOUS SHADE AND ORNAMENTAL TREES

Our trees are all periodically transplanted and root-pruned to develop vigorous root systems. Thus the shock of transplanting to home grounds is minimized and more immediate and rapid growth is assured our customers.

Good soil preparation and occasional THOROUGH watering during the first few growing seasons are advisable.

All shade and ornamental trees, except where otherwise noted, are sold 'B & B', that is dug with a ball of earth and burlapped. We have learned from many years of experience that trees moved B & B transplant more readily at almost any time of year. However, when trees are dormant some varieties can be moved successfully without a ball of earth just by protecting the roots with suitable packing materials. If bare rooted trees are desired, a price reduction of 20% will be allowed.

The planting of shade and ornamental trees should receive top priority in the development of any landscape plan. Their beauty and effectiveness increase as they mature, and every year of growth brings them closer to their ultimate usefulness.

Although the planting of large specimens may often be necessary to achieve an immediate effect, we highly recommend planting of medium-sized trees that can be planted even by the home-owner. Such trees develop rapidly with a minimum of care and soon become a valuable asset to the home.

DECIDUOUS ORNAMENTAL SHRUBS

There is no other group of plants that serves as many varied uses as do the Deciduous Ornamental Shrubs. Beautiful and fragrant flowers; foliage of many textures and colors, fruit for beauty and food for birds; and interesting and beautiful characteristics of growth are some of their desirable features.

All shrubs listed are priced B & B, that is, dug with a ball of earth and burlapped, except where otherwise specified. During early spring and late fall many varieties of shrubs can be moved without a ball of earth (bare rooted) and the shrubs protected with suitable packing material. If bare rooted shrubs are desired, a price reduction of 20% will be allowed on five or more of one variety.

Azaleas

Azaleas are perhaps the most rewarding of plants to raise. The great variety listed on the following pages is all grown in our nursery in Hopkinton. We are continually trying out and hybridizing new varieties, and our standard varieties are grown from stock plants selected for exceptional qualities.

The culture of Azaleas follows the requirements of Broad-leaved Evergreens: acid soil, rich in humus, and full sun to partial shade.

Lilacs may be cut back when they become too tall. This should be done directly after flowering for best results. Severe pruning and heavy fertilization will cause thrifty new growth and larger flower buds if done early.

Viburnum

The Viburnum family is perhaps the most aristocratic of hardy shrubs. Their form and character are unsurpassed as they become more beautiful with age. Viburnums do not require pruning and they are resistant to practically all diseases and insects.

The flowering forms such as Viburnum carlesi and Viburnum tomentosum warrant special attention in the horicultural world, and the fruiting varieties are unsurpassed for brilliance in the fall plus being an attractive source of food for birds.

VINES AND CLIMBING PLANTS

The average garden planting can hardly be complete if it lacks the finishing touch of a vine to enhance some architectural feature. Vines can also be planted for screening purposes to provide privacy or to cover unsightly areas. Their rapid growth and ornamental value of foliage, fruit or flowers make them worthy of more extensive use.

Garden Chrysanthemums

A great deal of pleasure in gardening can be derived from the growing of chrysanthemums. The huge bouquet of flowers that last so long on every plant is rewarding for the small effort required in pinching the new growth until the middle of July and the occasional watering, feeding and dusting.

We recommend May and June planting for best results, but chrysanthemums may be transplanted at any time after this period. Flowering plants are potted in the fall and are available at special prices.

This seal of the Massachusetts Nurserymen's Association is displayed by a large number of nurserymen and qualified plantsmen in our state whose livelihood is dependent upon the growing and sale of plants.

The Association works for the education and furtherance of good horticultural practices through television programs, the sponsorship of educational programs for the industry, cooperation with the University of Massachusetts in research and educational programs and prizes for the annual Fall Flower Show at Amherst.

The Massachusetts Nurserymen's Association has devoted several years of study and research in developing fertilizer and lawn seed for New England conditions. The quality of plants carried by the members is reflected in these other products, which are available only through this membership. Look for, and use, our MNA Fertilizers (Country Gardener, Plant-O-Ganic, Turf-O-Ganic) and MNA Lawn Seed (Pro-Turf and Mass-Turf).
